

This is a social story guide about PHORA 10XS.

This is a social story guide to attending sensory friendly performances during Žigužajg.

The guide is intended to help prepare you for a new experience and help you to become familiar with the surroundings and the performance.

Welcome to the Valletta Campus.

- This is what the building looks like from the outside.

- The building can be accessed either from Merchants Street.

And, this is the building from
St. Paul's Street.

You can enter from one or the other.

- When you enter through the front door, you will see a small desk and find yourself inside this long corridor.

- A person will approach you to guide you to the theatre.

- Your performance is at the Valletta Campus Theatre.
 - You will enter into another long corridor on the ground floor.
 - Here's a photo of this corridor leading to the Valletta Campus Theatre.

- At the end right of this corridor there is an open door that leads you to the Performing Space.

- You go through this door before the performance starts.

- Here, You will be waiting with other children and adults to go inside the Theatre.

You will be met by our assistants.

- The assistants will be wearing a t-shirt like this picture.

- You can ask an assistant if you have any questions and they will do their best to help you.

- When it's time for the show to start, the assistants will guide you to the theatre.

It may be a little bit dark inside but not too dark.

These is where you'll be sitting and watching the performance.

If you need to use the toilet, you need to go out of the Valletta Campus Theatre and the assistants will guide you to the toilets which are very close.

There will be an area for you if you need a break during the performances.

You need to go out of the Valletta Campus Theatre and our assistants will help you to find the restroom.

It will have red sofas.

You can use the area
during the performance.

You can come back to the show whenever you are ready.

What will happen during the show:
