This is a social story guide to attending sensory friendly performances during ŽiguŽajg. The guide is intended to help prepare you for a new experience and help you to become familiar with the surroundings and the performance.

Welcome to the Teatru
Manoel's Studio Theatre.

Entrance at Old Mint Street. This is what the building looks like from the outside.

You will be met by our festival assistants.

Our assistants will be wearing a T-shirt like this picture and are there to help you.

They will guide you to the theatre and scan your tickets.

When you enter through the front door, the festival assistant will approach you and guide you to the lift to go up to the theatre on the 2nd floor.

You will not see the lift from the entrance but a desk.

As soon as you go out from the lift, you see on your right the door which will lead you to the theatre.

And you will walk through this door to get inside the theatre.

This is the theatre from inside. It may be a little bit dark inside but not too dark

There will be an area for you if you need a break during the performances.

It will have sofas that you can use the area during the performance.

You can come back to the show whenever you are ready.

If you need to use the restrooms, you need to go out of the theatre and on your left you will find a small room, you enter that room and you will find a door marked with the restrooms sign.

This is what the restrooms look like inside.

What will happen during the show:

You will hear an announcement that the show is about to begin.

This is the start of the show!

If you find something funny, you can laugh! If you see or hear something that makes you sad, that's okay too!

You might hear other people laughing, clapping, and shouting.

You can join in if you'd like!

What will happen at the end of the show:

At the end of the show the actors will come out and take a bow.

You can clap if you want to.

The actors will exit the stage. This is the end of the show.

You can now leave the theatre by taking the same route as when you entered.

Thank you!
